

DEFEAT THE STEREOTYPES

Everyone can be italian!

Italy the Extraordinary Commonplace

What can make me become italian?

We are taking part in four activities:

- Let's make pasta!
- Iconic selfies of iconic italians
- The language of gesticulating
- Play the italian part

At the end, you'll maybe become a real italian!

TONGUE TWISTERS:

Italians learn tongue twisters at primary school. There are some of these that are strange and beautiful.

Here some of these:

- “C’è il questore in questura a quest’ora?”
“No non c’è il questore in questura a quest’ora.
Se ci fosse il questore in questura a quest’ora,
le avrebbe già fatto la questura”.
- Trentatré trentini entrarono a Trento, tutti e trentatré trotterellando.
- Sopra la panca la capra campa, sotto la panca la capra crepa.
- Tre tigri contro tre tigri.
- Apelle, figlio d’Apollo, fece una palla di pelle di pollo, tutti i pesci vennero a galla per vedere la palla di pelle di pollo, fatta da Apelle, figlio d’Apollo.

Choose one or more of these tongue twisters and try to learn them (you have 15-20 minutes). Then come to us and repeat them to obtain a stamp that will allow you to continue with new activities to become an Italian.

It will be really funny to hear your italian accent!

Remember: Italian words are pronounced as they are read.

Where does Tagliatelle come from?

Tagliatelle was invented by Mastro Zafirano for the marriage of Lucrezia Borgia

The cook was inspired by the beautiful blond hair of the bride

Let's make Tagliatelle!

01

Spread the flour in a fountain and make a hole in the center (like a volcano). Join in the center the whole egg.

02

Begin to knead with a fork, starting from the center by beating the egg and bringing some flour from the edges towards the center. When the egg is well absorbed, begin to work with your hands.

Ingredients:
-300g of flour
-3 eggs

03

Work the dough until it is smooth and homogeneous. Cover the dough with film and let the dough rest for 30 minutes at room temperature.

04

Then roll out the dough with a rolling pin and At this point wrap the dough, folding it on itself. Then cut the Tagliatelle with a thickness of 1 cm.

The language of gesticulating

- Using body while talking is a real language.

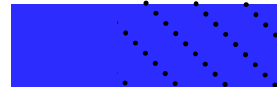

- examples of gestures; do you know any of them?

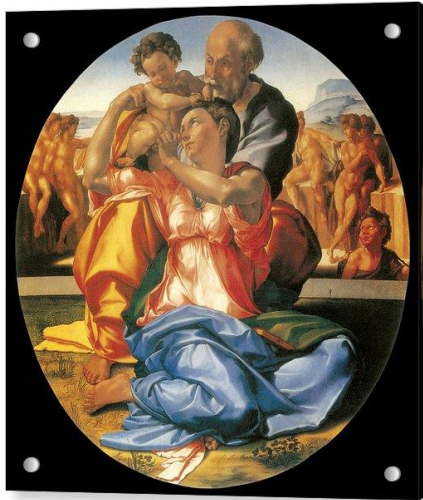

- Are you good with gestures?
